

Dear Springfield Disciples,

Blessed Salutations! This Sunday will be a special day in the life of our church as we begin a new conference year. It also marks one year of serving God together as your pastor, and I am filled with gratitude for the ways God has blessed our shared ministry.

Our worship will include several special moments designed to bring us together in joy, gratitude, and unity. Our scriptural focus will be Genesis 24:50–61, as we reflect on how God uses seasons of transition as opportunities to strengthen our faith. Together, we will boldly declare that we are moving forward, with courage and hope, in our individual lives, our families, and as our Springfield church family.

Following worship, I invite you to stay for our church barbecue. You can dine on the patio or in the Social Hall. Our United Methodist Men are preparing a delicious lunch for us to enjoy together. I hope you will stay for food, fellowship, and the opportunity to celebrate all that God is doing in and through our congregation.

Thank you for your faithful service to God and to Springfield United Methodist Church. It is a joy and privilege to serve alongside you, and I look forward with great anticipation to all that God has in store for us in this new conference year.

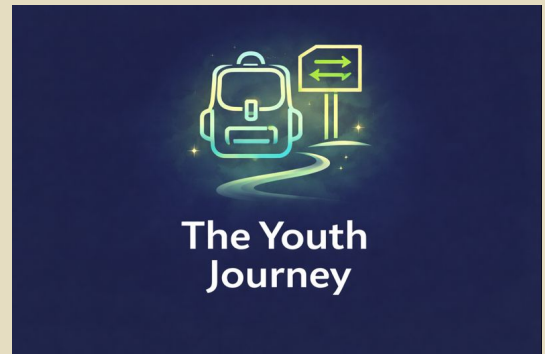

Peace Be With You,

Pastor DeLishia
